The use of Vox audio systems lifted the skiing percentage to 60%.*

HOW IT WORKS

The instructor or guide has a transmitter attached to a lanyard with a small microphone clipped to their jacket collar. The student wears a radio receiver that comfortably fits under their ski jacket with an earpiece under their helmet. The instructor speaks in a normal voice, giving instructions in real-time, while their students hear every word clearly. A simple solution that brings great results and improves safety.

STUDENT BENEFITS

- Clearly hear your teacher's instructions throughout the entirety of your lesson.
- Receive live feedback from the instructor exactly when you need it.
- Immediately adapt to advice.
- Rapidly improve your technique.
- Boost your confidence.
- Stay connected to your group.
- Receive advice even on the ski-lift!

BUSINESS BENEFITS

- Charge extra for premium service.
- Create a unique product differential.
- Your instructors will communicate effectively and efficiently with students throughout their lessons.
- Great results from lessons leads to improved customer satisfaction.
- Ensure group safety in all weather conditions.
- An all-round better skiing experience!

IMPROVE CUSTOMER SATISFACTION & BOOST YOUR RATINGS

"Organising starts and stops, changing pace and rhythm, and giving in-the moment advice to every student are all easily manageable with the help of Vox Cleartone devices."
